General Comments:	Catherine was joy to have in my class. She showed enthusiasm towards teaching and working with all students. She took great notes on things she noticed in my classroom and was great about asking questions when she had them. She had the opportunity to observe instructional lessons, review lessons, our home base period when we work with struggling students, and our teaming period where we brainstorm what to do when certain things are not working for students. She did a great job of answering questions and working with struggling students who needed more one-on-one help! I think she will be an amazing teach one day!
